

Vote no on this issue. A democracy needs all the independent sources of information it can get to stay alive. The fewer sources there are, the less chance of democracy surviving. eliminating news sources is among the first actions of a non-democracy. Do we value profits over freedom? Apparently three members of the FCC do. Shame.